

Bob Hardy Honourary Bursary

The Bob Hardy Honourary Bursary is unique to the EFMABC Bursary Program. The bursaries being offered to date are typically academic bursaries with a rating system intended to recognize individual circumstances as well as academic achievements. They are offered to students graduating in the bursary year and entering post secondary institutions throughout British Columbia.

This bursary is all about people and special circumstance that reflect the attributes and honours of Bob Hardy.

- The successful applicant will have demonstrated a high degree of empathy. A caring and warm personality toward others will be necessary;
- A commitment to having a solid work ethic or achievement in the area of community service;
- They must demonstrate that hard work and care for others are the most important;
- A demonstrated life experience or sense of how working in a team environment is a valuable belief;
- The applicant may have special circumstances in their life that demonstrated a strong desire to overcome adversity;
- The applicant will have relayed through their life experience and references, that the most important aspect of the future is helping people- colleagues, friends, family etc. through either peer counselling, tutoring, mentoring, involvement in any social organizations that help others.